Waseda Team Drops Two Games To Local Tossers

Visitors Downed By St. Louis and Honolulu Aggregations—Peterson is Leading Hitter for St. Louis—Janssen and Williams Hurl Good Ball Against Nippon Team—Kishi and Kato Star for Visiting Team—Coach Kono Talks of Defeats

Waseda University of Japan makata to Honolulu and St. Louis on Saturday and Sunday. Someone said that makata meant lose, lost or defeated in the rhetoric class at Count Okuma's educational foundry, and if that is the translation of lost, then the visitors are thereby handed the makata expression.

Since the Waseda team has enjoyed the days in Hawaii it has not captured one game, having been defeated twice by the Honolulu and once each by Kim Luke's Chinese aggregation and Arclia's tossers. They have played good baseball at times and poor ball at other times, but it is the premier, who has been troubled with international affairs of late, would establish a chair of willow weeping in his institution of education the name of Waseda might spread.

Coach Kono says: When seen yesterday afternoon after the Waseda squad had lost four straight games, Coach Kono, the boss of the visitors, said:

hits and fanning ten. Kato was again the star in the field, handling six hard chances without a bob.

Kishi, Nice Heaver.

Pitcher Kishi is far from being a "no good." On Sunday afternoon the Waseda southpaw held the Honolulu squad to three hits and sent seven of the locals back to the bench without a slice at the ball. He looks like the best Japanese pitcher that has appeared in this city in many moons and should be the premier performer on the mainland trip.

Kato made an error. This information may be doubted, but nevertheless the sensational little short fielder, who has played a safer game than any short fielder who has appeared here in some time, did so, and the visitor slumped. The little fellow has been going along getting everything, but in an effort to make a double play spilled the limas and an error was chalked up against him.

Blondy Williams pitched and held the visitors to three hits, also fanning nine of the Waseda players. The visitors started off in their usual manner, and when Souza booted Kato's drive and Yokoyama sacrificed the little short fielder went to second. Then Cho walked and Williams mused Asanuma's grounder and two infield plays gave the Waseda squad a duo of runs. That was all, as Williams held them safe after this.

The score was 2 all when Carroll came to bat in the eighth frame, and after receiving a walk ambled to second when Kishi missed Bushnell's ground ball. Then Flizer doubled to left and two runs came across, giving the Honolulu squad the game.

Peterson, who was one of the stars in the International League, showed up well in the first game in the Oahu League and was the leading hitter. It is strange that this fielder was never given an opportunity before to show what he could do in the Oahu circuit. MAYOR AND BAND TO MEET WORLD'S BEST CUE ARTIST

Willie Hoppe and Yamada Will Be Given Reception By Local Devotees of Cue Game

Manager Robert B. Benjamin, who has been all over the universe with the exception of Mars and Cettinje, has been a busy man this week. Benjamin, in addition to being a globe trotter of much eclat, is the manager of the world's greatest billiard wizard, Willie Hoppe and Koji Yamada.

Being a manager of two such stars, one would believe that Benjamin would be slightly up stage, but, far be it from such. When seen this morning in the Young Hotel lobby Benjamin stated that he was getting ready for a big reception for the cue artists. Mayor and Band at Wharf.

Mayor John C. Lane, who is one of the leading devotees of the green cloth game, has promised to meet the world's champion, and the Hawaiian band will also be given the cue to play some popular airs for the welcoming of a real world's champion.

Although Hoppe is the greatest cue artist the world has ever seen, Koji Yamada is far from being a weakling and today ranks next to the champion and ahead of such stars as Sutton, Cochran and Cagninoli. In fact, billiard authorities throughout America state that the little Japanese player is the leading exhibition player of the country. Yamada will also be given a reception upon his arrival in the city, and it is expected that many of his countrymen will meet the Manoa when it arrives in Honolulu tomorrow morning.

Benjamin stated today that it was not necessary to praise his champions as a look at the record of both will give one an idea of the ability of the stars. "The visit of Hoppe and Yamada will be a big boost for Hawaii, and Honolulu will soon learn that both players are perfect types of gentlemen," said Mr. Benjamin today.

The P. B. C. won three games and total pinfall from the H. A. C. Friday evening in the Club Bowling League. The student club was unable to put its best team in the field and victory was easy for the crack P. B. C. team.

Ernest Bell, an old member of the P. B. C. club, who has just returned from the coast, made his debut last evening and averaged 139 with 172 for high score. O. P. Soares bowled his usual good games and was high man for the evening. Abel Rodrigues proved second best and turned in the only double century of the evening with 209 in the opening game.

The Japanese Wizard With The Cue

Koji Yamada, the little Japanese billiard star who will arrive in Honolulu tomorrow morning, and will be welcomed by a number of his countrymen. Yamada is acknowledged the greatest exhibition player in the world of billiards, and local Japanese will plan a big reception for him some time during the week. Mr. and Mrs. William Hoppe will also arrive on the Manoa tomorrow morning.

HEAVY HITTING IN SCHOFIELD DIAMOND GAMES

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.)
SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, April 16.—The 1st Infantry Regimental League will be a thing of the past by the end of the week, and all signs point to Company M as the winner, with K or F Company a close second. F Company has led the league until the last two weeks when three lost games to inferior teams pushed them out of first place, and that position was taken by M Company, which has lost only two games to date. Now F and K Companies are tied for second place, and they play the last game of the season on Friday.

M Company's only remaining game is with the team from the Machine Gun Company. The Machine Gun outfit started in the season with the wrong foot, and now are next to the cellar, but they have been coming, and if they can finish strong enough to defeat M Company they will end the season in a blaze of glory and, incidentally cause a post season series, for that will leave M and either K or F tied for first place. M Company has lost several of her best players by transfer to the states, and is not the team she was at the beginning of the season. E Company yesterday came very near beating her, and only stupid work on bases prevented.

The final score in the E Company M Company game was 16 to 13, and E got 16 hits to M's 11. E Company hammered the offerings of the M Company pitchers all over the lot, but they could not make them tally as they should, and as a result M still leads the league.

In the game today, a game that had no bearing on the result of the league, I Company defeated L Company by the score of 7 to 6. L Company made a total of 16 hits, and only made them count for six runs. The L Company players apparently thought that all they had to do was make a hit and get to first, and the god of luck would do the rest. They were wrong in this particular, for in spite of their many other failings I Company were on the job when it came to catching base runners napping, and the 16 hits of L Company went for nothing more than six runs. I Company used 13 men in the game, and it evidently was an unlucky number for L Company.

STEWART HOLDS E COMPANY TO TWO BIFFLETS

The 159th Company, C. A. C., and Company E, 2d Infantry teams clashed on the Fort Ruger grounds Saturday afternoon in a close and exciting game, the 159th Company finishing on the long end of the 4 to 1 score. The game was well played, few errors being made by either team, while all concerned showed an unusual amount of interest. Both Stewart and Simmons were in fine form and pitched good ball, neither one issuing a base on balls. One wild pitch was chalked up against Stewart.

Stewart held his opponents runless and hitless for six innings. Kane sent a line drive through the pitcher's box in the seventh inning, went to second when Womack fumbled a grounder from Burns' bat, and scored when South muffed a nice fly to right from Roland's bat. Kane succeeded in connecting with the pill again in the ninth, but was caught napping off first.

McClain was the star for the winners, getting a double and two singles out of four times at bat, one of his singles scoring two runs in the fifth inning.

25TH INFANTRY TAKES CHINESE TEAM INTO CAMP

It is always stated on good authority that when the Chinese and 25th Infantry play the fans are certain to see a good game. They might have witnessed a good contest yesterday afternoon, but the Chinese players evidently thought the fans would like to witness a little football, and drop kicks and place kicks were the feature. Kai Luke was the star, making three forward passes on the ten-yard line.

Aside from the attempt at the gridiron game Luck Yee, who was assigned to do mound duty, was a star. In an effort to hit the bats of the opponents he succeeded wonderfully well, and when he left the firing line the 25th Infantry had gathered seven runs, all they secured during the day. Hoon Ki was selected to follow Luck Yee, and the relief pitcher held the colored soldiers for the balance of the game.

Kan Yen Stars.
Kan Yen, who held down the backstop job, was a star at the plate, sending three runners back who were blocked off the plate. His catching, and the twirling of Rogan were two of the bright features of the contest. Rogan stood out on the mound and shot the ball across and 11 batters marched slowly back to the aqua pall.

Only one error was chalked up against the 25th Infantry squad, and the colored soldiers played good ball throughout, both in the field and at bat. Rogan, as usual, was hard to hit, and the locals secured only six bingles, all of which were singles.

Crafton Homes.
Rogan was hit by a pitched ball in the first inning, and then Crafton, secretary of the Wreckers' Union, followed. He proceeded to hit one through Ah Lee for four sacks which rolled to the fence. Luck Yee got Johnson and Smith. En Sue was hit by a pitched ball, and then Rogan threw to first and hit him on the foot. Kai Luke sacrificed, and when Smith erred En Sue came home all the way from second.

Goliah was out at the plate on a hit and run signal after he had singled and went around to third on an error. In the third canto Fagan was safe on Kai Luke's error, and En Sue after a hard run dropped Swinton's liner. Then Rogan doubled to left, and En Sue in attempting to field the ball sprained his ankle, which completed a day of hard luck for the popular center fielder. Then Ah Lee missed Crafton's shot and three runs were across the plate.

Moore injured.
Goliah opened the fourth inning with a two-putt swat, and Hawkins was safe and went to third on two errors. Moore scored him with a single, making two more runs for the 25th Infantry. Moore was forced to leave the game on account of an injury. At this time the Chinese agreed that Luck Yee had had enough, and he retired to the outfield. Hoon Ki came in from the jungles and proceeded to fan Fagan. Rogan and Swinton hit to pitcher.

Jackson Caught at Plate.
Jackson singled to open the sixth and went to the keystone station on a sacrifice by Fagan. Then Swinton hit to center, and Jackson was caught at the plate. Kan Yen blocked two more men at the plate in the eighth stanza. Jackson had singled and went to third on an error by Luck Yee, and when Swinton hit to Cheong he caught Jackson at the plate. Rogan was also caught out, Ah Lee to Kan Yen, which ended the scoring.

The feature of the game was a circus catch by Johnson, who went up in the air and grabbed Hoon Ki's hit, which was ticketed for four sacks. Kai Luke also made a nice stop and throw of a hard hit ball. The game showed a number of exciting moments, despite the fact that the 25th had a big lead all the way, and another contest will be a big feature in local baseball.
